

School's Day Workshops
Friday 28 September 2018

All workshops are available at the following times:
10-11am / 11.15am-12.15pm / 12.45-1.45pm / 2-3pm

| Workshop Description  | Age      |
|---|----------|
| House of Fairy TalesTHE SWEVENAUGHTS DREAM RECYCLERS An exploratory adventure that takes children to travel with the Swevenaughts, the guardians of the faraway underground Dreaming City, to collect the dream fragments surrounding the Kingsmead Square and re-combobulate the daydreams into energy to power their city. | 6-11     |
| Matt LeeceDrawing Machines Interact with 3 different drawing machines that represent a different habitat within the Forest - the floor, the understory and the canopy. The different marks created will represent some of the animals that live within these habitats.   | all ages |
| Alison HarperShimmer Community making - re-imagining materials to create a veil around the Great Plane Tree and a Den under the Willow TreeJess Palmer  | all ages |
| Jess PalmerForest Maze: Draw on the Wall Children of all ages are invited to come and draw or or write on the walls of our Paper Maze. Modelled on the Bath Maze by Pulteney Bridge, the Paper Maze is a series of curving walls which lead to a central Drawing Spot where children can lie or sit on the ground and draw.  | all ages |

|  |               |
|--|---------------|
| Pippa Pixley Scribble and Scrunch Multi-Sensory Interactive Storytelling and Art Workshop The Scribble &amp; Scrunch Performance (30min) An interactive and participatory play-based storytelling centered on themes of friendship, feelings and the spirit of adventure. The Scribble &amp; Scrunch Workshop (30min) follows the performance and involves cutting, sticking, scribbling, scrunching – and having lots of fun designing, making and storytelling. | 3-7 years old |
| Clare Day Clay Forest Everyone can take part in making a collaborative clay forest, (trees, dens, animals, tree houses, mini-worlds with characters to tell stories in). Come along and play with clay!   | all ages      |
| Catharine Naylor Book making and print making taking inspiration from the Forest of Imagination  | all ages      |
| Alice Maddicott The City of Trees A creative writing workshop for children to create an overgrown city inspired by Bath and the Forest of Imagination.  | KS2KS3    |
| Margarita Sidirokastriti Globary The globary is a global library. It is mobile and it carries illustrated books from around the world in their original language. This creative writing workshop is inspired by the imagery of a chosen book.   | 7-11          |